Scholarships

(Deadline for submission is March 1, 2025)

Every year, the WIPCOD organization offers a minimum of five scholarships to professionals and graduate students in various fields. The scholarship will cover the registration fee for the advanced seminar. Those who meet the following criteria are eligible to apply:

1. Hold a position in Family Court Services, family law, mediation, domestic violence, or a similar field of responsibility or be a full-time graduate student at an accredited university in social work, law, counseling, or a related field.
2. Have not previously attended the WIPCOD Annual Conference .

Submit a letter of application detailing your interest in the scholarship, including a brief explanation of your professional position, background, and relevant experiences. Include your mailing address, email address and daytime telephone number.

Submit letter to: Paul.Schroth@outagamie.org or mail to:

Outagamie County Family Court Services
ATTN. Paul H. Schroth
320 S. Walnut St
Appleton, WI 54911

For questions, contact Paul directly at 920-832-5197.

This advanced seminar is a fantastic opportunity for professionals in the field of Family Court Services, mediation, custody evaluations, Guardians ad Litem, attorneys, domestic violence counselors, mental health counselors, psychologists, judges, court commissioners, and related disciplines to enhance their knowledge and network with peers in their field.
